New Show, New Exhibitors

Mode Accessories is the trade show retailers recognize as the source for fashion accessories. The success of the show has attracted many new suppliers who seek exhibit space but cannot be accommodated due to the show's consistent sold-out position. In September, a new edition of Mode Accessories is being launched, specifically for these new suppliers.

With nearly 80% of the exhibitors presenting for the first time, retailers will be exposed to a whole new group of suppliers! In today's competitive retail environment, finding sources for unique items may give you the advantage. Fast fashion demands sharp trend sourcing, timely delivery, and a constant flow of new products to keep the interest of the consumer. This Fall II/Winter buying show gives the retailers an opportunity to replenish their inventory, especially the best selling items in time for the crucial season of the year.

Mode Accessories' unique CASH & CARRY option is the perfect solution for many independent retailers.

With her intuitive sense of style and boundless creativity, Cathy Wasylshen, the Canadian designer behind Katz Meow (Booth 330), is always inspired to create beautiful accessories. Cathy's artistic and creative designs began as gifts for family and friends, quickly led to word of mouth sales.

In the fall of 2003, Cathy took a leap of faith and launched her company Katz Meow. Her creations are now showcased in several Toronto boutiques.

"What I love about creating jewellery is that each piece is a statement. My unique designs have the power to impress and elicit exciting reactions. The sexy designs of Katz Meow will make every woman purr."

Stingray in Fashion?

It started as an idea shared between two roommates in university. Interested in finding unique, trendy accessories, Candice Lashley and Rosanne Selci fantasized about searching the world for extraordinary jewellery and accessories to share with fellow fashionistas everywhere. After careful planning and research, CARO Imports Inc (Booth 316) was launched in September 2007.

Neither of them had ever even heard of Stingray leather before they came across A Cuckoo Moment. This innovative line out of Dusseldorf, Germany features the most beautiful assortment of bangles, all handmade using genuine Stingray or Ostrich leather; in stunning colours, shapes and sizes.

The RockCandy line originates from Bangkok, Thailand, where unusual materials such as Wood, Coral, Sand and Lava are set in high quality sterling silver to create beautiful jewellery. This line features earrings, pendants, rings, necklaces and bracelets to suit every ensemble and fit every budget.

Inspirations

Pushan Designs (Booth 321) was launched in 2004. Canadian designer Orusia Pushan fashions one-of-a-kind pieces inspired by her dreams. Other pieces are born from the cosmopolitan city of Toronto where she lives. It might have been a scent from her morning walk by a bakery, or the rolls of fabrics along Spadina Avenue, or the shape of a unique flower or fallen branch. Distilling inspiration from everyday life and adding media such as fabric, glass, ribbon, leather, and stones to her imaginative ideas, ultimately sets her designs apart from the rest.

Orusia's pieces soon adorned Canadian Celebrities such as super model Monika Schnarre, City TV's television host Liz West, singer Amanda Wilkinson from the Wilkinson's country group, 97.3 EZ Rock's Radio host Jessica Baker and Devine Designs' creative diva herself, Candice Olson.

Pushan Designs have also "walked" the runway in ELLE Canada's premier ELLE Show in Toronto last April. Pieces such as the Healing Daisy, Empress, and the Kaleidoscope, were featured in the Summer Fantasy by Bikini Village's runway show, while the Square with Tile necklace was modeled in the Summer Fantasy by Triumph runway show. Publications include the Wear Canada 2007 Las Vegas Trade Magazine.

Pushan Designs can be found in stores across Canada, and in New York, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota and California. Whether it's funky to match your boisterous personality, sexy to meet your provocative side, or classic to enhance your professional persona, it's all here.
